Tuesday Eve'g, April 4, 1865, SECOND OPERA NIGHT.

Only time, m at positively, of Gounod's Opera

Mn ic. Phitadelphia, and subsequently at the Naw York Academy.

This Opera is presented entire in five Acta, the Unirch Sc n., (now emitted in its presentation by N. council, only, bring out that from the too great long h of the opera. The characters, Margueties and Mephitophies, are and will forever remain thoroughly wedded to Marie Frederich and Joseph He mars. The acting of the latter in Mephi-tophics is regarded as any ristingly beyond any-thing known to the Lyric Stage. It may not be smiss to add that the elebrates bramatic Artites, Edwin Forrest, E. L. Davengort, and the Messre, wallack have expressed the opinion that "No dra-matic assump ion stands before it."

A Note of Warning.-Let the poets say what they will, Spring is a treacherous scason. It "to both the bones." Of its damps and fogs, its east winds and its captificus timpo ature, come the fey chil's and the barning beats of intermittent fever. Missua thaws out of the earth in cleuds under the vernal beams. At no season of the year does the yetem require etrengthening more than at this. To fall sick now is to be incapac tated from struggling with the heats of summer.
